

I would like to register my opposition to changing the rules on broadcast media ownership. I believe that the proposed changes would almost certainly lead to fewer choices for broadcast listeners and viewers, and fewer points of view and sources of news and information. A glaring example that exists already is the failure of the current news media to report on this very issue. And I can only see this type of problem reoccurring and worsening under the proposed changes.